Happy Tails

Submitted on December 5, 2010: Adopter: Linda Reineke Boxer's Name: Gabby (2008)

Gabby (aka Jade in her past life) has been a joy during the 2 1/2 years that we've had her. When she came to us, she didn't know her name and we changed it to Gabby (because she liked to talk) and started her new life. Within 6 weeks she had mastered agility and could run multiple obstacles on just voice commands and hand signals. We often make trips to our home in North Carolina, where she hikes and loves everyone she meets on the trails. Thanks to FLBR for allowing us to be a part of her life!

Submitted on December 12, 2010: Adopter: Melanie Neal Boxer's Name: Moses

Moses is a maniac.. He's extremely loveable and loves his brother Riley.. His nickname is Happy Feet, because he just can't sit still. He loves giving kisses and just loves people, or just about anyone that will give him just an ounce of attention. I couldn't ask for a better dog.

Ps.. Moses is on the right..

Submitted on November 24, 2010: Adopter: Bill Bergin Boxer's Name: Leroy Brown

It's hard to believe that Leroy has been with us for less than a year. I think he adopted me on our first visit to his foster home. Since then he has been my constant companion. Having several boxers before, I thought I knew what to expect from Leroy. I was right - and wrong. Leroy turns out to be exceptionally well behaved and I believe he understands English - smarter than a 5th grader. Leroy is going on 6 years but plays and runs like a young pup. As you can see, he loves to swim and retrieve one of his many pool toys. Plenty of Boxer kisses, nub waggles and belly rubs for our favorite Boxer companion. Leroy says "Thank you FBR."

Submitted on November 23, 2010: Adopter: Kiersta Borrego Boxer's Name: Cognac

We have had Cognac for about 3 years now, and he has been the best dog we have ever had! He has come such a long way since we got him. He loves his walks, runs, swimming, and most of all playing with his toys! His favorite thing to do is jump as high as he can and chase after his toy balls and sticks. He has become a special part of our family, and is irreplaceable! Cognac is one of the sweetest and most cuddly dogs that we have ever met. Enjoys all of the attention and loving he gets from family and friends. He is a special dog and we could not have picked a better dog to adopt! Thank you FBR for allowing us to adopt such an amazing boxer.

Submitted on November 23, 2010: Adopter: Josh Schrems Boxer's Name: Stryker

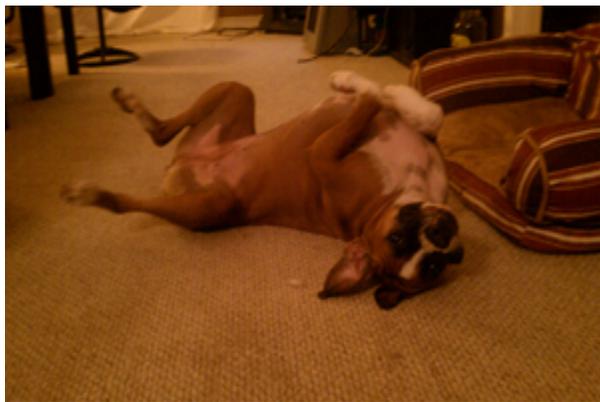

Stryker is my boy! We adopted this beautiful boxer in August of 2009, and let's just say that he is living the life all Boxers should have :) He is happy, healthy, and so much fun. Stryker just loves everybody and everything - he has a such a wonderful personality. I'd guess that if Stryker could talk, his favorite things to do are play time, belly rubs, and couch time just lounging with Mom and Dad. Thanks FBR for all that you do - after losing my previous Boxer Roxy, the only thing that made our house a home again was adopting Stryker :)

Submitted on November 22, 2010: Adopter: Monika Hladik Boxer's Name: Sasha

We had been looking for a female boxer and had lost out on 2 of our previous choices. Then one day I got an e-mail from FLBR saying they have a sweet young girl who was pulled from Animal Services and was living at a boarding facility. She had heartworm and would need to be vetted before we could adopt her but someone would have to foster her during her treatment. We had been weary of fostering but decided to give this sweet girl a chance. The minute she wiggled up to me at the boarding facility I knew she was our dog. She must have known too because she slept the whole 45 minutes in the car.

She's a healthy girl now and loves playing and going for long walks but most of all getting her belly rubbed on the couch!

Submitted on July 16, 2010: Adopter: Carol M Boxer's Name: Cayman

Two pictures of Cayman post rescue. Definitely a great looking Boxer boy!

Submitted on July 8, 2010: Adopter: Steven and Cynthia Boxer's Name: Casey (2009)

Miss Casey is doing well in her new home; she no longer weighs 39 pounds...she now weighs almost 60 pounds and has a new best friend ...Chloie Ann the hound. She had another new best friend upon her arrival home but, her friend Runt has since passed. And what would pictures be if she didn't show you her Halloween outfit and sitting in front of her Christmas tree waiting for presents.!"

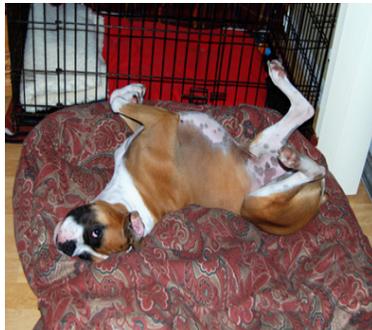

Submitted on May 16, 2010: Adopter: Patsy and Jonathan Boxer's Name: Sketch AKA Stretch (2008)

We adopted our handsome boy Sketch in July 2008, at nearly 3 years old. We had this idea that our older girl Boxer, Moxie, who was approaching 9 at the time, would like some company since her best Playmate ever, our son Brock, grew up and moved out. The first time we met Sketch' we fell in love with this boy and hoped our Moxie would too. Well, she wasn't too sure of him at first, and was wondering why he was staying at her house. She quickly let him know she was the queen bee but he weaseled his way into her heart and she showed this youngster the ropes and now they are inseparable.

At 65 pounds, the perfect lap dog. Yeah Right! ;-) At least he thinks so.

Sketch loves to go for car rides and as soon as he sees his life jacket come out, he knows he is going boating and boy does he ever start singing and dancing. He is not too keen on the swimming thing like Moxie but as long as he can sight see, sun bath, sit on your lap or just look handsome, he is loving life!

Thank you FBR for bringing such joy to our life by finding Sketch.

Submitted on March 22, 2010: Adopter: Sheryl Boxer's Name: Junior (2009) and Ruby Tuesday (2009)

"It's almost been a year since we adopted Junior [4/10/09 came into FBR as Bozo]. Thought I would send you a pic so you can see them. They were helping (?) us rake some leaves :). The Doctor put Junior on a diet because he was getting kind of chunky. He is now eating his vegetables! Ruby Tuesday [adopted 8/7/09] still loves sleeping with the boys and Junior loves to steal our blankets. They have brought so much joy to us! Thanks again for all you do for the boxers and thanks for bringing these great pups to us!!"
